AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to establishing the New York state equine industry board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new section 387 to read as follows:

§ 387. New York state equine industry board. 1. There shall be established within the department the New York state equine industry board, to advise and make recommendations to the state agencies on state government plans, policies and programs affecting all aspects of equine industry, as outlined below, and in such areas as its experience and studies may indicate to be appropriate. The department shall provide necessary secretarial and support services to the board.

2. The equine industry board shall consist of seventeen members appointed by the governor, selected for their experience and expertise related to areas of board responsibility. Members shall include the commissioner or their designee who shall act as chairperson of the board, and representatives of the following stakeholder groups: Cornell university college of agriculture and life sciences; Cornell university college of veterinary medicine; a rescue organization or the humane society; an organization involved in horse sanctuaries or racehorse aftercare; an organization involved in horse therapy; an equine veterinarian; a trail or recreational riding group; the equine support industry; an organizer of horse shows, rodeos or competitions; horse boarders or riding stables; the horse breeding industry; farmers and ranchers; an academic researcher; the New York state horse council or a similar organization; the New York state Veterinary Medical Society or a similar

1 organization; and a youth equine organization. Members shall be
2 appointed for a term of three years and may serve until their successors
3 are chosen provided, however, that of the members first appointed, five 4 of the members shall serve for a term of one year, five shall serve for 5 a term of two years, and seven shall serve for a term of three years.
6 Members shall serve without salary but shall be entitled to reimburse-
7 ment of their ordinary and necessary travel expenses.

8 3. (a) The duties and responsibilities of the equine advisory board
9 shall include, but not be limited to, providing timely advice, comments
10 and recommendations to the commissioner regarding:

11 (i) equine-tourism;

12 (ii) equine industry promotion;

13 (iii) workforce development;

14 (iv) educational and training initiatives;

15 (v) humane treatment of horses; and

16 (vi) other areas of interest identified by the board.

17 (b) The commissioner may delegate to the board such additional duties
18 and responsibilities as are deemed necessary.

19 4. The duties and responsibilities of the equine industry board shall 20 include, but not be limited to, providing timely advice, comments and 21 recommendations to the commissioner and other state agency heads regard-
22 ing all aspects of the equine industry in the state. Concerned state 23 agencies shall be encouraged to establish a working relationship with 24 the board and shall fully cooperate with the board in any requests it 25 shall make.

26 5. The equine industry board may ask other individuals to attend its 27 meetings or work with it on an occasional or regular basis. The board
28 shall set the time and place of its meetings and shall hold at least one
29 meeting per year. The board may establish committees and regional work-
30 ing groups as necessary.

31 6. The equine industry board shall produce an annual report to the 32 governor and the legislature on or before the end of each calendar year
33 concerning its activities during the previous year and its program
34 expectations for the succeeding year.

35 7. (a) The equine industry board shall advise the commissioner in 36 establishing procedures for making annual awards and grants, within the 37 limits of appropriations made therefor, recognizing New York equine 38 businesses, individuals, and institutions that are successful in inno-
39 uating, marketing, and/or promoting New York equine industries. The 40 commissioner shall coordinate with the commissioner of economic develop-
41 ment to determine which department shall make awards and grants in vari-
42 ous categories identified by the equine industry board. These awards and 43 grants shall be given in recognition of exceptional performance, inno-
44 vation and support for New York equine industries by persons, firms and 45 organizations that are principally located within the state of New York
46 and engaged in the operation of New York equine farms, businesses and 47 institutions.

48 (b) The board may annually nominate and forward such nominations for 49 awards and grants to the commissioner consideration in the following
50 categories:

51 (i) veterinary practice and horse welfare;

52 (ii) equine-tourism;

53 (iii) workforce development;

54 (iv) public education;

55 (v) youth equine activities; and

1 (vi) such other awards and grants as the equine advisory board shall 2 recommend.

3 (c) The commissioner shall have the discretion to designate award and 4 grant winners from these nominees. Current members of the board and 5 their businesses are not eligible as nominees.

6 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 7 have become a law.
