AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to enacting the "New York gift certificate scam prevention act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "New York gift certificate scam prevention act".

3 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 396-i of the general
4 business law, as amended by chapter 668 of the laws of 2021, is amended
5 to read as follows:

6 (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have
7 the following meanings:

8 (1) "gift certificate" shall mean a certificate, electronic card, or 9 other pre-funded record that: (i) is usable at a single merchant or an
10 affiliated group of merchants that share the same name, mark, or logo,
11 or is usable at multiple, unaffiliated merchants or service providers;
12 and (ii) is issued in a specified amount; and (iii) may or may not be
13 increased in value or reloaded; and (iv) is purchased and/or loaded on a 14 prepaid basis for the future purchase or delivery of any goods or 15 services; and (v) is honored upon presentation;

16 (2) "open loop gift certificate" shall mean a gift certificate redeem-
17 able at multiple, unaffiliated merchants or service providers; ~~[and]~~

18 (3) "promotional gift certificate" shall mean a gift certificate
19 issued for no consideration which includes on the front of the gift
20 certificate (i) a statement indicating that the card is issued for 21 promotional purposes and (ii) the expiration date for the underlying 22 funds; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

(4) "third-party gift certificate reseller" shall mean a merchant who, without authorization from or affiliation with the business entity issuing an open loop gift certificate, is engaged in the business of buying open loop gift certificates or reselling open loop gift certificates to consumers.

§ 3. Subdivisions 4, 5, 5-a, 5-b and 6 of section 396-i of the general business law are renumbered subdivisions 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, and a new subdivision 4 is added to read as follows:

4. (a) For an in-person sale of a gift certificate, such gift certificate shall:

(i) conceal all visible numbers, such as a card number, CVV numbers, or PIN numbers, that can be used for balance inquiries or manual entry redemption; or

(ii) display such information only if the gift certificate incorporates technology that is designed to prevent activation if that gift certificate has been subject to tampering or incorporates technology that is designed to detect and prevent unauthorized redemption.

(b) A merchant may sell a gift certificate that does not conceal all visible numbers used for balance inquiries or manual entry redemption, as required under paragraph (a) of this subdivision if such gift certificate is:

(i) a chip-enabled, numberless card that is activated by a consumer after registering such gift certificate on the issuer's website;

(ii) such gift certificate is sold exclusively by such merchant or a group of affiliated merchants for use only at the retail establishments of such merchant or affiliated merchants and is secured in a physical location within such merchant's retail establishment that is visible at all times to an employee of such merchant or accessible only by an employee of such merchant;

(iii) incorporates technology that is designed to prevent activation if that gift certificate has been subjected to tampering; or

(iv) incorporates technology that is designed to detect and prevent unauthorized redemption.

(c) A merchant that displays a gift certificate for sale at a retail establishment shall provide training to all employees of such merchant whose duties regularly include the sale of gift certificates and/or open loop gift certificates to consumers on how to identify and respond to gift certificate scams.

(d) (i) Subject to the provisions of subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, when a third-party gift certificate reseller sells an open loop gift certificate as part of a transaction occurring in this state, such third-party gift certificate reseller shall record and maintain for a minimum of three years, a copy of the following:

(1) The name of the person who conducted the transaction;

(2) The name, age, and address of the seller of the open loop gift certificate;

(3) The seller's and consumer's driver's license or other identification card number;

(4) A description of the purchased open loop gift certificate including the retailer for which such open loop gift certificate is intended for use and such open loop gift certificate's identification number;

(5) The specific amount issued on the open loop gift certificate;

(6) The prices paid to conduct the transaction; and

(7) The signature of the consumer.

(ii) (1) The information recorded and maintained under this paragraph shall be recorded chronologically in ink writing or logged into a secure

1 database, software system, or other similar technology platform. Except
2 as provided in clause two of this subparagraph, recorded information
3 made in ink writing shall not be destroyed, altered, or erased within 4 the time frame such recorded information is required to be kept under 5 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.

6 (2) A handwritten correction may be made to an entry of information by 7 drawing a line of ink through such entry in a manner that retains legi-
8 bility. Information recorded under this section shall be open to 9 inspection by any duly authorized law enforcement officer: (A) during 10 the ordinary business hours of the third-party gift certificate resell-
11 er; or (B) at any reasonable time.

12 (3) A third-party gift certificate reseller, including an agent or 13 employee of such third-party gift certificate reseller, shall not: (A)
14 fail to make an entry of or falsify, destroy, or remove any information
15 required to be recorded and maintained under this section; (B) refuse to 16 allow any duly authorized law enforcement officer to inspect a record of 17 information or open loop gift certificate in such third-party gift
18 certificate reseller's possession during the ordinary business hours of 19 such reseller or at any reasonable time; or (C) fail to maintain a
20 record of each open loop gift certificate and transaction for at least 21 three years as required under subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.

22 § 4. This act shall take effect September 1, 2026.
