Introduced by M. of A. PAULIN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection -- recommitted to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection in accordance with Assembly Rule 3, sec. 2 -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to penalties for a lodging facility that fails to comply with certain requirements for providing information concerning services for human trafficking victims

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 206-f of the general business law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. (a) Any lodging facility that fails to comply with the requirements of this section shall be liable for a civil penalty of five hundred dollars for a first offense and one thousand dollars for each subsequent offense. To recover any civil penalties assessed pursuant to this section against a lodging facility, a local or state agency with authority to regulate the business shall:

(i) provide the lodging facility with reasonable notice of noncompliance, which informs the business or establishment that it is subject to a civil penalty if it does not correct the violation within thirty days from the date that the notice is sent to the lodging facility; and

(ii) verify that the violation was not corrected within the thirty-day period described in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph.

(b) The provisions of this subdivision shall be enforced concurrently by the director or commissioner of a municipal consumer affairs office, or by the town attorney, city corporation counsel, or other lawful designee of a municipality or local government, and all moneys collected thereunder shall be retained by such municipality or local government.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
