AN ACT to amend the correction law and the executive law, in relation to prohibiting the use of restraints on incarcerated individuals during labor, absent extraordinary circumstances, and on pregnant persons during a custodial interrogation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 611 of the correction law, as
2 amended by chapter 17 of the laws of 2016, paragraph (c) as separately
3 amended by chapters 322 and 621 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read
4 as follows:
5 1. (a) If a [~~woman~~] person confined in any institution or local 6 correctional facility [~~be~~] is pregnant and about to give birth [~~to a~~ 7 ~~child~~], or needs medical care elsewhere related to pregnancy or any 8 pregnancy outcome, including birth, abortion, miscarriage and still-9 birth, the superintendent or sheriff in charge of such institution or 10 facility, a reasonable time before the anticipated birth [~~of such child~~]
11 or need for such other care, as determined by such person's health care 12 provider, or if unavailable, by personnel providing medical services to 13 such person, in accordance with medical best practices and standards of 14 care, shall cause such [~~woman~~] person to be removed from such institu-
15 tion or facility and provided with comfortable accommodations, mainte-
16 nance and medical care elsewhere[~~7~~]. This shall be done under such 17 supervision and safeguards to prevent [~~her~~] their escape from custody as the superintendent or sheriff or ~~[his or her]~~ their designee may determine except as provided by paragraphs (b), (c), (d), (g), and (h) of this subdivision.

(b) No restraints of any kind shall be used during transport of such [woman] person, a [woman] person who is known to be pregnant or known to be within twelve weeks of any pregnancy outcome, including birth, abortion, miscarriage, and stillbirth, by correctional personnel or personnel providing medical services to the institution or local correctional facility[~~, or a woman within eight weeks after delivery or pregnancy outcome,~~]. This includes, but is not limited to, persons receiving care at a hospital or medical facility or in labor or delivery, and is absent extraordinary circumstances in which~~+~~

~~i. the superintendent or sheriff or his or her designee in consultation with the medical professional responsible for the institution has made an individualized determination that restraints are necessary to prevent such woman from injuring herself or medical or correctional personnel or others and cannot reasonably be restrained by other means, including the use of additional personnel; or~~

~~ii.~~], during transport the correctional personnel directly responsible for the transport of such a ~~[woman]~~ person determine that an emergency has arisen in which restraints are necessary because the ~~[woman]~~ person poses an immediate risk of serious injury to ~~[herself]~~ themselves or medical or correctional personnel or others and cannot reasonably be restrained by other means.

~~[(b)] (c)~~ If a determination has been made pursuant to ~~[subparagraph i or ii of]~~ paragraph ~~[(a)] (b)~~ of this subdivision that extraordinary circumstances exist then restraints shall be limited to wrist restraints in front of the body. The ~~[superintendent or sheriff or his or her designee pursuant to subparagraph i of paragraph (a) of this subdivision or]~~ correctional personnel pursuant to ~~[subparagraph ii of]~~ paragraph ~~[(a)] (b)~~ of this subdivision shall document in writing the facts upon which the finding of extraordinary circumstances were based within five days of the use of such restraints and shall also document the type of restraints used and the length of time such restraints were used.

~~[(c) No restraints of any kind shall be used when such woman is in labor, admitted to a hospital, institution or clinic for delivery, or recovering after giving birth. Any such personnel as may be necessary to supervise the woman during transport to and from and during her stay at the hospital, institution or clinic shall be provided to ensure adequate care, custody and control of the woman, except that no]~~

(d) No correctional staff shall be present in the ~~[delivery]~~ patient's room during ~~[the birth of a baby]~~ counseling and medical care related to the pregnancy and all pregnancy outcomes including birth, abortion, miscarriage, and stillbirth and during and after labor unless requested by the medical staff ~~[supervising]~~ providing such ~~[delivery]~~ care when the situation poses a clear risk of danger to the medical staff or others or by the ~~[woman giving birth]~~ person receiving such care. If a determination has been made pursuant to this subdivision that correctional staff shall be present, correctional personnel shall document in writing within five days: the facts, as reported by medical staff, on which the determination was based; the nature of the care being provided; and what, if any, alternatives were attempted to avoid having correctional staff present and why they failed.

(e) The ~~[woman]~~ person shall be permitted to have at least one support person of ~~[her]~~ their choosing accompany ~~[her in the delivery room and when such woman is in labor and recovering after giving birth]~~ them to a

1 hospital or medical facility for labor, birth, postpartum recovery and
2 counseling and medical care related to pregnancy and all pregnancy
3 outcomes including birth, abortion, miscarriage and stillbirth and shall 4 be permitted to remain with such support person for the duration of 5 their stay in the hospital or medical facility subject to the visitation
6 rules of that hospital or medical facility. A support person shall not 7 need to have visited the [woman] person at a correctional facility prior
8 to serving as a support person[~~—A person~~] and may not be denied eligi-
9 bility to serve as a support person solely on the basis of a past criminal
10 conviction or that such support person is on probation, conditional
11 release, parole or post release supervision. Any decision by an [agency]
12 institution or local correctional facility to deny a [woman's] request
13 ~~[to have] for a specific support person [serve as a support person]~~
14 shall be made with reasons specified in writing within five days of 15 ~~[her] the~~ request and promptly provided to the [woman] person making 16 the request. A support person shall be notified immediately after such 17 ~~[woman] person~~ goes into labor, ~~[or immediately after a caesarean]~~ is 18 scheduled for labor induction or a cesarean section [or termination], is 19 identified as having a miscarriage or stillbirth, or is scheduled for 20 medical care for any pregnancy outcome, including birth, abortion,
21 miscarriage, and stillbirth. If available, a doula[~~—midwife~~] or other
22 birthing support specialist may also assist during labor ~~[and]~~ delivery
23 ~~[in addition to at least one support person of the woman's choosing. Any~~ 24 ~~woman confined in a state or local correctional facility shall receive~~ 25 ~~notice in writing in a language and manner understandable to her about~~ 26 ~~the requirements of this section upon her admission to such state or~~ 27 ~~local correctional facility and again when she is known to be pregnant.~~
28 ~~The superintendent or sheriff shall publish notice of the requirements~~
29 ~~of this section in prominent locations where medical care is provided],~~ 30 postpartum recovery, and during medical care for and recovery from any 31 pregnancy outcome including birth, abortion, miscarriage, and 32 stillbirth. The superintendent or sheriff or ~~[his or her]~~ their designee
33 shall cause such [woman] person to be subject to return to such institu-
34 tion or local correctional facility ~~[as soon]~~ after the birth of [her] 35 their child or other pregnancy outcome or provision of counseling and 36 medical care related to pregnancy or any pregnancy outcome as the state
37 of [her] their health will permit as determined by the medical profes-
38 sional responsible for the care of such [woman] person. ~~[If such woman~~
39 ~~is confined in a local correctional facility, the expense of such accom-~~
40 ~~modation, maintenance and medical care shall be paid by such woman or~~ 41 ~~her relatives or from any available funds of the local correctional~~ 42 ~~facility and if not available from such sources, shall be a charge upon~~ 43 ~~the county, city or town in which is located the court from which such~~
44 ~~incarcerated individual was committed to such local correctional facili-~~
45 ~~ty. If such woman is confined in any institution under the control of~~ 46 ~~the department, the expense of such accommodation, maintenance and~~ 47 ~~medical care shall be paid by such woman or her relatives and if not~~ 48 ~~available from such sources, such maintenance and medical care shall be~~
49 ~~paid by the state. In cases where payment of such accommodations, main-~~ 50 ~~tenance and medical care is assumed by the county, city or town from~~ 51 ~~which such incarcerated individual was committed the payer shall make~~
52 ~~payment by issuing payment instrument in favor of the agency or individ-~~
53 ~~ual that provided such accommodations and services, after certification~~
54 ~~has been made by the head of the institution to which the incarcerated~~
55 ~~individual was legally confined, that the charges for such accommo-~~

~~datations, maintenance and medical care were necessary and are just, and that the institution has no available funds for such purpose.~~

~~(d)~~ (f) Any ~~woman~~ person confined in an institution or local correctional facility shall receive notice in writing in a language and manner understandable to ~~her~~ them about the requirements of this section upon ~~her~~ their admission to an institution or local correctional facility and again when ~~she is~~ they are known to be pregnant. The superintendent or sheriff shall publish notice of the requirements of this section in prominent locations where medical care is provided. The department and the sheriff shall provide annual training on provisions of this section to all correctional personnel who are involved in the transportation, supervision or medical care of incarcerated ~~women~~ persons.

~~(e)~~ (g) Force against a pregnant person or any person within twelve weeks after delivery or pregnancy outcome shall not be used, except as a last resort, and then only in situations in which the staff member reasonably believes that force is necessary to protect themselves, the incarcerated individual, or a third person from what they reasonably believe to be the use or imminent use of physical force by such individual that could cause death or serious physical injury. The use of spit masks, chemical agents, tasers, weapons, chokeholds or blows to the body against a pregnant person or any person within twelve weeks after delivery or pregnancy outcome shall be strictly prohibited.

(h) If a determination has been made pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subdivision that force must be used, correctional personnel shall document in writing within five days of the use of such force: the facts from which the finding that force was necessary as a last resort were based, what non-force alternatives were attempted and why they failed, the type or types of force used, the length of time such force was used, and a description of each injury incurred by the incarcerated person.

(i) i. The department shall report annually to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly, the chairperson of the senate crime victims, crime and correction committee and the chairperson of the assembly correction committee concerning:

(A) every use of restraints and force on a woman person under this section, including the reason such restraint was used, the type of restraint used and the length of time such restraint was used pursuant to paragraph ~~(b)~~ (c) of this subdivision, but shall exclude ~~individual identifying~~ personally identifiable information; and

(B) every use of force on a person under this section, including the reason such force was used, what non-force alternatives were attempted and why they failed, the type or types of force used, the length of time such force was used, and a description of each injury incurred by the incarcerated person pursuant to paragraph (h) of this subdivision, but shall exclude personally identifiable information.

ii. The sheriff of each county shall report at least annually to the commission, in a form and manner prescribed by the commission~~[7]~~:

(A) every use of restraints on a woman person under this section, including the reason such restraint was used, the type of restraint used and the length of time such restraint was used pursuant to paragraph ~~(b)~~ (c) of this subdivision, ~~annually to the commission~~ but shall exclude personally identifiable information; and

(B) every use of force on a person under this section, including the reason such force was used, what non-force alternatives were attempted and why they failed, the type or types of force used, the length of time

1 such force was used, and a description of each injury incurred by the 2 incarcerated person pursuant to paragraph (h) of this subdivision, but 3 shall exclude personally identifiable information. The commission shall 4 include such information in its annual report pursuant to section
5 forty-five of this chapter, but shall exclude identifying information
6 from such report.

7 iii. Reports required by this section shall be posted on the websites
8 maintained by the department and the commission.

9 (j) The department and the commission shall issue uniform minimum
10 standards and procedures regarding the implementation of this subdivi-
11 sion within one hundred eighty days of the effective date of the chapter 12 of the laws of two thousand twenty-six that amended this subdivision.
13 These standards shall be developed in consultation with medical, social 14 work, and mental health professionals, including those with specializa-15 tions in reproductive health care, pediatrics, child development, and 16 postpartum mental health, as well as advocates for pregnant people who 17 are incarcerated, including presently and formerly incarcerated individ-
18 uals.

19 § 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 837-t-1 to 20 read as follows:

21 § 837-t-1. Use of restraints on pregnant and post-pregnant persons by 22 law enforcement. 1. Where a person who is known to be pregnant, in 23 labor or delivery, or twelve weeks post-pregnancy is in the custody of 24 law enforcement, subject to custodial interrogation, or has their free-25 dom of action restricted by law enforcement in any significant way, the 26 use of restraints of any kind by law enforcement personnel shall be 27 prohibited. The provisions of this section shall at minimum apply to 28 police stations, holding facilities for prisoners, prosecutors' offices, 29 medical areas and hospitals, and any facility where persons are held in 30 detention in connection with criminal or juvenile delinquency charges
31 that have been or may be filed against them, as well as during transfer 32 to and from such locations. A person's disclosure of their status shall 33 serve as sufficient notice to law enforcement under this provision.

34 2. (a) If restraints are used on a person who is pregnant or post-
35 pregnancy contrary to this section, the law enforcement personnel
36 responsible for such use of restraints shall document in writing within 37 five days: the reason such restraints were used, the type of restraints 38 used, and the length of time such restraints were used.

39 (b) The chief of every police department, county sheriff, and the 40 superintendent of state police shall report to the division, in a form 41 and manner prescribed by the division, all such uses of restraints,
42 disaggregated by county, and shall include the following information,
43 but shall exclude personally identifiable information:

44 (i) the reason restraints were used;
45 (ii) the type of restraints used;
46 (iii) the length of time such restraints were used;
47 (iv) the race, ethnicity, age, and gender identity of the individual;
48 and

49 (v) the zip code or location where the use of restraints occurred.

50 (c) The division shall make the information reported pursuant to this 51 subdivision available to the public by posting it on the website of the 52 division, excluding personally identifiable information.

53 (d) The division shall submit to the governor and the legislature an 54 annual report of all uses of restraints on pregnant and post-pregnant 55 persons by law enforcement, including the information reported pursuant

1 to this subdivision, but shall exclude personally identifying informa-
2 tion.
3 (e) The division may promulgate regulations to effectuate the report-
4 ing required by this subdivision.
5 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
