AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to enacting "the prison wage act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "the prison
2 wage act".

3 § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 170 of the correction law, as amended by 4 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

5 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an incarcerated indi-
6 vidual may be permitted to leave the institution under guard to volun-
7 tarily perform work for a nonprofit organization; provided that each
8 incarcerated individual who volunteers to perform work for a nonprofit 9 organization shall be compensated for their labor in accordance with the 10 provisions of subdivision five of section one hundred eighty-seven of 11 this article. As used in this section, the term "nonprofit organization" 12 means an organization operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or 13 educational purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the 14 benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

15 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 171 of the correction law, as amended by 16 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended and a new subdivision 3 is 17 added to read as follows:

18 1. The commissioner and the superintendents and officials of all peni-19 tentiaries in the state may [~~cause~~ permit] incarcerated individuals in 20 the state correctional facilities and such penitentiaries who are phys-21 ically capable thereof to be employed for not to exceed eight hours of 22 each day other than Sundays and public holidays. Notwithstanding any

1 other provision of this section, however, the commissioner and super-
2 intendents of state correctional facilities may employ incarcerated
3 individuals on a volunteer basis on Sundays and public holidays in 4 specialized areas of the facility, including kitchen areas, vehicular 5 garages, rubbish pickup and grounds maintenance, providing, however,
6 that incarcerated individuals so employed shall be allowed an alterna-
7 tive free day within the normal work week.

8 3. Any incarcerated individual performing labor as described in this 9 section shall be compensated for their labor in accordance with the 10 provisions of subdivision five of section one hundred eighty-seven of 11 this article.

12 § 4. Subdivision 7 of section 177 of the correction law, as renumbered
13 by chapter 256 of the laws of 2010, is renumbered subdivision 8 and a 14 new subdivision 7 is added to read as follows:

15 7. Any incarcerated individual performing labor as described in this 16 section shall be compensated for their labor in accordance with the 17 provisions of subdivision five of section one hundred eighty-seven of 18 this article.

19 § 5. Section 178 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 322 of 20 the laws of 2021, is amended to read as follows:

21 § 178. Participation in work release and other community activities.
22 1. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed or applied so as 23 to prohibit private employment of incarcerated individuals in the commu-
24 nity under a work release program, or a residential treatment facility 25 program formulated pursuant to any provision of this chapter.

26 2. Any incarcerated individual who is employed under a work release 27 program or a residential treatment facility program formulated pursuant 28 to any provision of this chapter shall be compensated for their labor in 29 accordance with the provisions of subdivision five of section one 30 hundred eighty-seven of this article.

31 § 6. Section 184 of the correction law is amended by adding a new
32 subdivision 3 to read as follows:

33 3. Any incarcerated individual performing labor as described in this 34 section shall be compensated for such labor in accordance with the 35 provisions of subdivision five of section one hundred eighty-seven of 36 this article.

37 § 7. Section 186 of the correction law is amended by adding a new 38 subdivision 5 to read as follows:

39 5. Any incarcerated individual performing labor as described in this 40 section shall be compensated for such labor in accordance with the 41 provisions of subdivision five of section one hundred eighty-seven of 42 this article.

43 § 8. Subdivision 1 of section 187 of the correction law, as amended by 44 chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, is amended and a new subdivision 5 is 45 added to read as follows:

46 1. Every incarcerated individual confined in a state correctional 47 facility, subject to the rules and regulations of the department of 48 corrections and community supervision, and every incarcerated individual 49 confined in a local correctional facility, in the discretion of the 50 sheriff thereof, ~~may~~ shall receive compensation for work performed 51 during ~~his or her~~ imprisonment. Such compensation shall be graded by 52 the department of corrections and community supervision with regard to 53 incarcerated individuals employed in prison industries, based upon the 54 work performed by such prisoners for prisoners confined in state correc-
55 tional facilities, and by the sheriffs in all local correctional facili-
56 ties for incarcerated individuals confined therein.

1 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the 2 contrary, no incarcerated individual shall be compensated an amount that 3 is less than one-half of the minimum wage established by article nine-4 teen of the labor law for work performed or work for which a wage is 5 paid. As used in this subdivision, "work for which a wage is paid"
6 includes any task assigned to an incarcerated individual for which a 7 wage would have been due except for their status as an incarcerated 8 individual.

9 § 9. Subdivisions 2 and 3 of section 200 of the correction law, as 10 amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, are amended to read as 11 follows:

12 2. In lieu of the system of labor in correctional institutions estab-
13 lished by this article, the commissioner [~~may~~] shall, in order to facil-
14 itate an incarcerated individual's eventual reintegration into society, 15 establish for the incarcerated individuals in [~~one or more state~~] each 16 correctional [~~institutions~~] institution a system of educational, career 17 and industrial training programs, and of incentive allowances for each 18 such program, to be entered into by incarcerated individuals in addition 19 to the system of labor established by this article.

20 3. For each institution wherein such system is established the commis-21 sioner shall prepare, and may at times revise, graded incentive allow-22 ance schedules for the incarcerated individuals within each such program
23 based upon the levels of performance and achievement by an incarcerated 24 individual in a program to which [~~he or she has~~] they have been 25 assigned. Notwithstanding any provision of law, rule, or regulation to 26 the contrary, no incarcerated individual shall receive an hourly incen-
27 tive allowance that is less than one-half of the minimum wage estab-
28 lished by article nineteen of the labor law. Upon the approval of the 29 director of the budget such schedules or revisions thereof may be 30 promulgated.

31 § 10. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day
32 after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, 33 amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the 34 implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be 35 made and completed on or before such date.
