AN ACT to amend the civil rights law, the public officers law, the tax law, the general obligations law, the education law, the alcoholic beverage control law, the general city law, the general business law, the labor law and the judiciary law, in relation to enacting the empire state licensing act; and to repeal certain provisions of the education law, the alcoholic beverage control law and the public health law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as 2 the "empire state licensing act".

3 § 2. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new article 4-D to 4 read as follows:

ARTICLE 4-D

RIGHTS OF IMMIGRANTS IN LICENSING

Section 49. Definitions.

49-a. Nondiscrimination based on citizenship or immigration status.

49-b. Application; confidentiality.

11 § 49. Definitions. When used in this article, unless the context
12 requires otherwise:

13 1. "License" shall mean any state or local government issued profes-14 sional, occupational, commercial, or business license, registration,

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD01691-13-5

1 permit, certificate, or any other state or local government issued
2 permission to operate in New York state.

3 2. "Issuing entity" shall mean any state or local government depart-
4 ment, board, bureau, commission, or other public entity that issues
5 licenses, permits, certificates or any other state or local government 6 issued permission to operate.

7 § 49-a. Nondiscrimination based on citizenship or immigration status.
8 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no 9 otherwise qualified applicant for a license or renewal thereof, shall be 10 denied to any individual or entity based on the immigration, citizen-11 ship, or undocumented status of such applicant.

12 2. Any existing requirement based on United States citizenship or 13 permanent residence shall be deemed null and void for the issuing or 14 renewal of a license, as defined in section forty-nine of this article.

15 3. No issuing entity shall inquire into, request or require proof of 16 an applicant's citizenship, lawful immigration status, country of birth 17 or national origin.

18 4. If an issuing entity does not currently have a policy in place for 19 reviewing and analyzing relevant experience obtained in the United 20 States or abroad, in lieu of formal education, training, or other 21 prerequisites where appropriate, such issuing entity shall create a 22 policy for evaluating experience for substantial equivalency to existing 23 requirements that may waive prerequisites if the applicant demonstrates 24 sufficient competency or prior practice in a relevant field. Provided, 25 however, that such policy shall be available to the public and posted on 26 the entity's website, if any.

27 5. When English-language proficiency is determined to not be neces-
28 sary to issue or maintain a license issued by the department of state, 29 the application process, including any related examination under the 30 department of state, shall be made accessible in an applicant's prima-31 ry language.

32 § 49-b. Application; confidentiality. 1. Every issuing entity shall 33 create and/or maintain processes for the protection from disclosure of 34 identifying information for any purpose other than those required by 35 law, and to comply with the confidentiality requirements herein.

36 2. The issuing entity shall not retain originals or copies of any 37 documents that may be probative of an applicant's place of birth, 38 including, but not limited to, an applicant's birth certificate, consu-
39 lar identification card, passport, social security card, or individual 40 taxpayer identification number card, for longer than the time needed to 41 review the application. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the 42 issuing or registering entity from retaining documents where such docu-
43 ments are required by law to be preserved for the purposes of liti-
44 gation.

45 3. The issuing entity shall not disclose information or documents
46 collected that may be probative of an applicant's place of birth, 47 including, but not limited to, country of passport issuance, birth
48 certificate, consular identification card, passport, social security 49 number or social security card, or individual taxpayer identification 50 number or individual taxpayer identification card unless such disclosure 51 is:

52 (a) authorized in writing by the individual to whom such information 53 pertains, or if such individual is a minor or is otherwise not legally 54 competent, by such individual's parent or legal guardian; or

(b) necessary to comply with a lawful court order, judicial warrant signed by a judge appointed pursuant to article III of the United States constitution, or properly-issued subpoena.

4. To the extent disclosure of confidential information or documents to another state entity is required pursuant to state law, such information and/or documents shall be treated as confidential and not further disclosed by the receiving entity, consistent with the requirements of subdivision three of this section.

5. All issuing entities, and any other state entity that may subsequently receive confidential information and/or documents, shall ensure any information and/or documents that are stored electronically, including but not limited to in databases, shall be compliant with the provisions of subdivision two of this section. Passive electronic access to confidential information and/or documents by external individuals or entities, when disclosure is not otherwise permitted pursuant to subdivision two of this section, shall constitute an unlawful disclosure.

6. Whenever disclosure is permitted pursuant to court order, warrant, or subpoena, the issuing entity shall provide the individual to whom the information and/or documents pertain with a copy of the court order, warrant, or subpoena within three business days of its receipt. Only such information or documents specifically sought pursuant to such court order, warrant, or subpoena shall be disclosed.

§ 3. Subparagraphs vii and viii of paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 89 of the public officers law, as amended by section 2 of part GGG of chapter 59 of the laws of 2019, are amended to read as follows:

vii. disclosure of electronic contact information, such as an e-mail address or a social network username, that has been collected from a taxpayer under section one hundred four of the real property tax law; ~~or~~ viii. disclosure of law enforcement arrest or booking photographs of an individual, unless public release of such photographs will serve a specific law enforcement purpose and disclosure is not precluded by any state or federal laws; or

ix. disclosure of information obtained through application for any state or local government issued professional, occupational, commercial, or business license, registration, permit, certificate, or any other state or local government issued permission to operate in New York.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 and subparagraph 3 of paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 5 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 170 of the laws of 1994, are amended to read as follows:

2. Requiring information. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every covered agency shall, as part of the procedure for granting, renewing, amending, supplementing or restating the license of any person or at the time the covered agency contracts to purchase or purchases goods or services or leases real or personal property from any person, require that each such person provide to the covered agency such person's federal social security account number ~~or~~, federal employer identification number, or ~~[both such numbers when such person has both such numbers, or, where such person does not have such number or numbers, the reason or reasons why such person does not have such number or numbers]~~ the federal individual taxpayer identification number. Such numbers ~~[or reasons]~~ shall be obtained by such covered agency as part of the administration of the taxes administered by the commissioner for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by such taxes.

(3) federal social security account number ~~[or]~~, federal employer identification number, or ~~[both such numbers where such person has both such numbers, or the reason or reasons, furnished by such person, why such person does not have such number or numbers]~~ the federal individual taxpayer identification number.

§ 5. Subdivision 2 of section 3-503 of the general obligations law, as amended by chapter 398 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

2. Every applicant for a license or renewal thereof shall provide ~~[his or her]~~ their social security number or federal individual taxpayer identification number on the application. Additionally, every applicant for a license or renewal thereof shall certify in the application in a written statement under oath, duly sworn and subscribed, that as of the date the application is filed ~~[he or she]~~ such applicant is (or is not) under obligation to pay child support and that if ~~[he or she is]~~ they are under such an obligation, that ~~[he or she]~~ such applicant does (or does not) meet one of the following requirements:

a. ~~[he or she]~~ the applicant is not four months or more in arrears in the payment of child support; or

7 chapter 461 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

8 1. No manufacturer or contractor shall engage in the apparel industry 9 unless ~~[he or she]~~ such manufacturer or contractor registers with the 10 commissioner, in writing, on a form provided by the commissioner, which 11 shall contain the following information: whether it is a sole proprie-12 torship, partnership or corporation, its name, address and number of 13 production employees, the name, home address and social security number 14 or individual taxpayer identification number of each owner or partner, 15 or if the registrant is a corporation, no shares of which are listed on 16 a national securities exchange or regularly quoted in an over-the-coun-17 ter market by one or more members of a national or an affiliated securi-18 ties association, of each officer and of each of the ten largest share-19 holders thereof, how long it has been in business, its tax 20 identification number, whether it is a manufacturer or contractor, the 21 name and address of each person with a financial interest in the 22 manufacturer's or contractor's business and the amount of that interest, 23 except that if the manufacturer or contractor is a publicly-traded 24 corporation, only the names and addresses of the corporation officers 25 shall be required, whether it is in contractual relations with a labor 26 organization and, if so, the name and address of such labor organiza-27 tion, a statement as to whether the registrant or any owner of or part-28 ner in, or if the registrant is a corporation, no shares of which are 29 listed on a national securities exchange or regularly quoted in an over-30 the-counter market by one or more members of a national or an affiliated 31 securities association, any officer or any of the ten largest sharehold-32 ers thereof has, within the last three years, been found by any court or 33 administrative body to have violated this chapter and, if so, the nature 34 and date of such violation and, if the registrant is a contractor, 35 whether that contractor subcontracts the cutting or sewing of apparel or 36 sections or components thereof. Such registration form shall also 37 require that each owner or partner, or if the registrant is a corpo-
38 ration, then each officer, submit photographic proof of identity. Divi-39 sions, subsidiary corporations or related companies may, at the option 40 of the manufacturer or contractor, be named and included under one omni-
41 bus registration. Such registration shall be filed on or before January 42 fifteenth of each year. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of 43 registration, which shall be effective for a period of twelve months, 44 upon receipt of a completed registration form accompanied by the requi-45 site photographic proof of identity and documentation that such manufac-
46 turer or contractor has paid any surety bond required pursuant to subdivi-47 sion eight of section three hundred forty-five of this article and 48 that a workers' compensation insurance policy is in effect for the 49 registrant's production employees working in New York state. The initial 50 registration fee shall be two hundred dollars and each subsequent annual 51 renewal registration fee shall be one hundred fifty dollars. With 52 respect to new employers, such registration shall be filed upon the 53 commencement of manufacturing or contracting in the apparel industry and 54 shall be effective until the following January fifteenth. The commis-55 sioner may pro rate the initial annual registration fee in such 56 instances.

2 the laws of 2022, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 460. Examination and admission of attorneys. An applicant for admis-4 sion to practice as an attorney or counsellor in this state, must be 5 examined and licensed to practice as prescribed in this chapter and in 6 the rules of the court of appeals. Race, creed, color, national origin, 7 noncitizen status [~~or~~], sex or federal immigration status shall consti-
8 tute no cause for refusing any person examination or admission to prac-9 tice.

10 § 45. Severability. If any provision of this act, or any application 11 of any provision of this act, is held to be invalid, that shall not 12 affect the validity or effectiveness of any other provision of this act, 13 or of any other application of any provision of this act, which can be 14 given effect without that provision or application; and to that end, the 15 provisions and applications of this act are severable.

16 § 46. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day
17 after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, 18 amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the 19 implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be 20 made and completed on or before such effective date.
