AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to training of state police and local police departments on the address confidentiality program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 840 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 9 to read as follows:

3 9. (a) The council, in coordination with the office of victim 4 services, the office for the prevention of domestic violence and the 5 secretary of state, shall promulgate policies and procedures with regard 6 to training on the address confidentiality program pursuant to section 7 one hundred eight of this chapter which shall include, but not limited 8 to:

9 (i) training on the purpose and benefits of the address confidentiali-10 ty program;

11 (ii) procedures for identifying and assisting victims who may be 12 eligible for such program;

13 (iii) guidelines for maintaining confidentiality and handling sensi-
14 tive information related to program participants; and

15 (iv) protocols for coordinating with the office of victim services and 16 other agencies to provide support services to program participants.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (b) Such training shall be required for all police officers and shall 2 be incorporated into existing training programs including, but not 3 limited to, the basic course for police officers and in-service
4 programs. The training for in-service programs on the address confiden-
5 tiality program shall be conducted once every three years.

6 (c) The division of criminal justice services shall provide confirma-7 tion of compliance with such training requirement for all police depart-8 ments to the secretary of state pursuant to section one hundred eight of 9 this chapter.

10 § 2. Subdivision 8 of section 108 of the executive law, as added by 11 chapter 502 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

12 8. Report to the legislature. The secretary shall submit to the legis-
13 lature, no later than February first of each year, a report that 14 includes for each county, the total number of applications received, the 15 total number of persons participating in the program established by this 16 section during the previous calendar year and the total number of pieces 17 of mail forwarded to program participants during the previous calendar
18 year. The report shall include confirmation from the division of crimi-
19 nal justice services of the date that each county received the training 20 materials and when the training was completed by each police department; 21 and confirmation from the superintendent of state police that training 22 was completed by all state police officers.

23 § 3. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 214-j to 24 read as follows:

25 § 214-j. Address confidentiality program training. (a) The superinten-26 dent, in coordination with the office of victim services, the office for 27 the prevention of domestic violence and the secretary of state, shall 28 promulgate policies and procedures with regard to training on the 29 address confidentiality program pursuant to section one hundred eight of 30 this chapter which shall include, but not be limited to:

31 (i) training on the purpose and benefits of the address confiden-
32 tiality program;

33 (ii) procedures for identifying and assisting victims who may be
34 eligible for such program;

35 (iii) guidelines for maintaining confidentiality and handling sensi-
36 tive information related to program participants; and

37 (iv) protocols for coordinating with the office of victim services and 38 other agencies to provide support services to program participants.

39 (b) Such training shall be required for all state police officers and 40 shall be incorporated into existing training programs. Such training 41 shall be conducted once every three years.

42 (c) The superintendent shall provide confirmation of compliance with 43 such training requirement for all new and veteran state police officers 44 to the secretary of state pursuant to section one hundred eight of this 45 chapter.

46 § 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 47 it shall have become a law.
